Narrative Paragraph

My First day at NUML

Do you keep in mind your initial day within the university? Well, I keep in mind my initial day. The 1st of March, 2021 was the day that helped me to overcome one of my greatest fears. This was my first day at one of the most prestigious universities in Islamabad and nothing was familiar. I had just entered the doors of NUML and started my life-changing journey. I waited all the summer to enter at the university. I was very excited and at the same time I was a little bit nervous too. I was searching for my classroom. I was embarrassed and plenty of queries were running in my head. wherever was my class? wherever was the professor's room? however ought to I behave with new classmates? I started to panic. While I was walking in front of Admin block I saw some individuals, I approached to at least one Boy and I asked for the classroom which turns out that we were of the same Program and then I felt less nervous. I introduced myself and he additionally did it, her name was Faraz. After a brief intro, we tend to came within the classroom There were lot of students, who were like strangers to us. All our classmates were quiet, no one talked. the teacher arrived early. He started the Lecture and at that time we tend to introduced ourselves. Then I saw my others classmates and that I checked out 2 Boys they were Ahad and Fayaz. I approached with them and that i talked with Ahad and Fayaz. I introduced myself, then they did identical and then we began to grasp additional regarding one another. After that, we tend to spent the remainder of the day along till we tend to had to travel home. I am continuously getting to keep in mind that day as a result of I had the chance to fulfill additional individuals and also the most vital I met the simplest friends that I even have ever had. I understood that all problems can be solved much faster and easier, when you have a supporter. People around us not angry and always willing to help, just forget about your fears and make step forward to them. Finally, I feel that it's natural that on the primary day we tend to feel nervous, however the items continuously have a contented ending, that is why I say that my initial day within the university was superb.

Comparative Paragraph

Winter is Better Than Summer

Winter is one of the most important season in all over the Pakistan. It is a part of the four seasons that occur in all over the World. Winter is the coolest season that starts from December and last till March. The peak time when winter is experienced the most in December and January. In Pakistan, winters hold great importance. In addition, the essence it has is admired by many people. Winters give you the time to indulge in various activities like snowball fighting, building snowmen, ice hockey and more. It is a great time for kids to enjoy their vacations and get cozy in their blankets. The winter season is that the best season amongst the four that occur in Pakistan. The winter season has the foremost spirit, is that the comfiest, and is that the safest health wise. The winter season has holidays that each child with impatience waits for, and has outside lake hockey not like the other season. Whereas within the summer you're hot and dehydrated whereas mosquitoes attack you, and it tougher to sleep once it's hot compared to once it's cold. No different season has the vacation spirit that's gift within the winter. The smell of the cake cookies that the mothers create is that the ancient winter vacation scent. The little ladies go outside to make some snowmen whereas the boys go play some shin with their friends on the frozen lake. Whereas within the summer there's no lake hockey, no presents, and no vacation spirit. solely unpleasant things expect one's presence within the summer. because the summer season comes around, it won't have any presents, cake cookies, frozen lake hockey, or a pleasant cool night of sleep anticipating you. The winter is that the comfiest and stress-free amongst all the seasons in Pakistan. Winter being the most stress-free season for anybody is the reason why it's the healthiest season. The increased comfort helps reduce stress, and the holiday spirit and more time spent with your family is another factor that contributes to making people in a more cheerful mood. The main reason why winter is the healthiest season amongst them all is because there are lower amount of sicknesses and diseases compared to the summer. Whereas in the summer one can suffer from dehydration, sun burn from the scorching hot sun, sunstroke, and a fever from when it rains. The human body also can withstand cold temperatures better than it can handle hot temperatures, so the winter is more preferable for one's body. In the winter we never have to face any of these problem, instead one can enjoy the hot chocolate once again by the fireplace with their family members and friends. I personally, believe that winter offers a lot more comfort then summer and is overall a better season for food, activities and clothes.

Expository Paragraph

How to Get Rid of Smoking

First, congratulate yourself. Just reading this Paragraph is a big step toward becoming tobacco-free. Many people don't quit smoking because they think it's too hard, and it's true that for most people quitting isn't easy. After all, the nicotine in cigarettes is a powerfully addictive drug. But with the right approach, you can overcome the cravings. Smokers often start smoking because friends or family do. But they keep smoking because they get addicted to nicotine, one of the chemicals in cigarettes and smokeless tobacco. Nicotine is both a stimulant and a depressant. That means it increases the heart rate at first and makes people feel more alert. Then it causes depression and fatigue. The depression and fatigue and the drug withdrawal from nicotine make people crave another cigarette to perk up again. But don't be discouraged millions of people have permanently quit smoking. People who want to make a change often are more successful when they put their goal in writing. Write down all the reasons why you want to quit smoking, like the money you'll save or the stamina you'll gain for playing sports. Keep that list where you can see it. Add new reasons as you think of them. People are more likely to succeed at quitting when friends and family help. If you don't want to tell your family that you smoke, ask friends to help you quit. Consider confiding in a counselor or other adult you trust. If it's hard to find people who support you, join an online or in-person support group. Pick a day that you'll stop smoking. Put it on your calendar and tell friends and family that you'll quit on that day. Think of the day as a dividing line between the smoking you and the new, improved nonsmoker you'll become. People can't stop smoking with cigarettes around to tempt them. So get rid of everything, including ashtrays, lighters, and, yes, even that pack you stashed away for emergencies. Many people find it's best to quit on a Monday, when they have school or work to keep them busy. The more distracted you are, the less likely you'll be to crave cigarettes. Staying active is also a good distraction, plus it helps you keep your weight down and your energy up. Some people find that gradually decreasing the number of cigarettes they smoke each day is an effective way to quit. But this strategy doesn't work for everyone. If you find that none of these strategies is working, talk to your doctor about treatments like nicotine replacement gums, patches, inhalers, or nasal sprays. Sprays and inhalers are available by prescription only, and it's important to see your doctor before buying the patch and gum over the counter. Quitting smoking isn't easy. Give yourself a well-deserved reward. Set aside the money you usually spend on cigarettes. When you've stayed tobacco-free for a week, 2 weeks, or a month, give yourself a treat like a gift card, movie, or some clothes. Celebrate again every smoke-free year. You earned it.

Descriptive Paragraph

My Best Friend

PARAGRAPH WRITING

Friendship is an extraordinary gift in anyone's life. An individual gets to know various individuals during their life venture. Among these, we find types of people who have similar choices of taste and nature. We become close to that person and spend more time together. Step by step, a sort of relationship creates, which ends up leaving dependable impressions throughout one's life. It means that the best relationship and friendship begin from here. You spend most of the time with your best friend. You share everything without exception with your companions. I am, for sure fortunate to have my College companion, a tall, handsome, with hair that falls just above his ears, Sohaib Khan seems like a model. This boy makes life seem fun again; He has the ability to lift my spirits by just being himself. He has taken responsibility to a new level and still has time to joke. Many people say we act alike, but I think I could actually call him a role model. Above her dark brown eyes lies a perfect set of full eyebrows. His rounded face sits atop her shoulders with a brilliant smile. His perfect little nose accents her face nicely. I have only begun to tell you of a wonderful person that I can call my Best Friend. Sohaib Khan. It started on the second day of my 1st year of Inter. I earned the closest companion of my life when I was only seventeen years of age. I do accept that He is the best thing at any point in my life. We played together, giggled together, gained experiences together. We are connected by heart and gives time to each other. We talk about the occasions in our lives and cherish every minute together, think back to our past times. Sohaib Khan can make me smile simply by being himself, a show that many need to lift their spirits. He loves to listen to my problems and interject advice that could help me through my struggles. Many times I am mystified by his ability to just sit and listen to a poor soul like me pour out my mind, but He sees it as an opportunity to let someone "unload." He seems to be enlightened on all aspects of life, such as family and relationships, and finds it easy to relate to almost anyone or anything. A quality that I find most intriguing about Him is that He can take any situation and make the best of it. To be able to go to Goodwill and use it as a playground, proves that He can have fun in any situation. Though the most horrible things can happen to Him, He never seems to be having a bad day. Laughing comes naturally to Him and He can bring joy into the most barren situation. He seems to be the most responsible person I know. Just being able to control a full-time job and still do well in college amazes me. Life proceeds with its fantastic journey, such a large number of close companions came all through my life, yet none substituted the sole position saved for my best friend, who remained close by during the back and forth movement of my little life.
