Islamabad.
Sir

INTRO

Through the column of your newspaper, I'd prefer to draw the eye of involved authorities towards the problem of electricity stealing that's being visaged by the residents of I-14 Islamabad. There square measure some new individuals living in our space World Health Organization square measure a touch suspicious. We have recently return to grasp that these individuals steal electricity in the dark.

Thanks to this move, we have seen a big increase within the electricity bills of the many individuals in our space. Their actions have had a profound result on the poor individuals of our space. There square measure several families in our space World Health Organization square measure repetitive laborers World Health Organization will barely bear the daily expenses of their lives.

We the individuals of the realm are making an attempt for an extended time to induce the authorities to resolve this issue however we have a tendency to don't seem to be obtaining any positive response from them.

INTRO

Therefore, we have a tendency to request you to publish this letter in your newspaper so the authorities will hear our downside and solve our downside.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours faithfully,

Hamza Mehmood,
Resident of I-14/3, Islamabad.
