Develop a short story on the basis of following situation:

Aalia was getting ready for college. Her brother Ahmad had to drop her in her college. Ahmad's mother asked him to take the breakfast. When he was taking the breakfast, he received a message on his mobile. He read the message and left the house quietly. When Aalia went to his room she saw that Ahmad was not present in his room. Before she could inform her mother, the bell of her mobile rang. She received a call and cried

Mama….mama….mama………………………………………………………..

The call was from the unknown number. When mother received the call no one was speaking. So she cut the call with some anger saying " foolish people" . After it she asked Aalia where is his brother, she replied "I have no idea where is he, and I am getting late from college as well". Mother called Ahmad but he was not picking up the call . Now she was a bit worried now. Soon after it Mother received a call from a same wrong number again , angerly she picked up the call with a "Hello" word . "Am I talking with Misses Faraz" a kind voiced lady asked. Mother replied "yes", " I am talking from CMH hospital your Uncle had an accident but he is okay now we are sending him home along with his grand son." When Ahmad and uncle went home back , Ahmad told his mother that he received a same call from hospital so he leaved home in hurry so he forgot to tell . After it he dropped Aalia to her college And fulfilled his responsibility.

MORAL: Always fulfill your responsibility in what ever situation you are.
